We are hiring - join MiB's Job Fair!

Are you interested in hearing which companies in Finland hire international talent in English? Join MiB's Job Fair on October 6th! This occasion is a rare opportunity to get in contact with the employers, without the pressure of nailing a job interview right away.

You get to talk to recruiters in person and ask questions, instead of looking at their website. Use the opportunity to boost your knowledge and career.

MiB's Job Fair takes place from 15:00-17:00 at Alma house in Helsinki. At the site, you get to meet Jobly's and Tietoevry's representatives as well as other companies. Jobly is a recruiting agency that represents over 4000 employers in Finland.

Save the date and stay tuned for more updates on the companies onboard.
See you on the 6th!

Want to see your employer at the event?

We still have a couple spots available for companies at the Job Fair and we want to give the opportunity for you to suggest organizations to join. Let's work together to boost recruitment of international moms!

Requirements for companies are that they hire also international talent and that they have family friendly practices in place, such as remote work or flexible working hours.

Stands for companies at the fair are free and the organizations will get visibility and potential future employees from the fair, so this is a great opportunity for cooperation with MiB.

Contact jenny.soderman@mib.fi, tel. 044 706 0862 for more information and we'll get the ball rolling.

Give us feedback and win a hotel night!

To serve you better with the International project, we will gather your feedback in our English online survey.

Among the English respondents, we will raffle a night at Scandic hotel - moms deserve to be pampered! The questionnaire itself is anonymous.

Answering this survey helps to target the activities to your needs and show the size of our active English community to our funder.

Your feedback really matters for our project. Thank you for your time and answers!

How is your work-live balance?

It can take a lot of effort for mothers to find the balance between work and family. One day it goes fine, another day is a total disaster. But it is possible to thrive in both, and you don't have to be alone while trying to do that.

We will workshop on the topic on the 26th October. Save your seat in the hybrid event and meet other wonderful and skilled moms.

You can join with your kids, so this is a great opportunity to practice being a mom and talking about work.

Are you interested in becoming a MiB member?

The more English speaking members we have at MiB, the better chances we have for advocating for diversity and inclusion as an organization even after our project has finished.

As a MiB member, you are warmly welcome to join all our events to develop your self, grow your networks and meet other mothers. Thank you for joining us!
